Parents Club Membership: The purpose of the TWHS Boys' Lacrosse Parents' Club is to support the TWHS boys' lacrosse teams, and Worthington feeder programs to the extent possible; to assist in any project pertaining to the welfare of the team where such assistance is needed; and to be of assistance on all trips made by the team during all seasons of the year. The Parents' Club is a Support Group of Coordinated Athletic Resources Deliver Support, Inc. (CARDS, INC) The club president or designee shall be the representative to CARDS, INC. Annual membership pays for parents, stepparents or guardians who will have voting rights. Members other than parents, stepparents, or guardians are considered auxiliary members. Auxiliary members may not serve as officers or committee chairs, and have no voting rights.			Club Dues: $35.00
Optional Coaches' Gift: The TWHS lacrosse team's success is largely dependent on a number of coaches: paid and volunteer. The Parents' Club presents each coach with a gift card at the end of the season banquet as a thank you for his hard work. We have found in the past that parents appreciate being able to make a donation along with the registration process. Additional opportunities to donate will be offered before the team banquet.
